inclusive*

So what is Ascot?

A very glamorous and fun day out.
A glorious excuse to get dressed up.
It's MUCH more than a horse race but it is fun to put a bet on too.
We'll be people watching.
Enjoying great food and wine.
Plenty of laughter.

An incredible experience that you will be talking about for years to come.
Why not join us for a taste of the good life? You built your business to allow you the freedom to do things just like this, didn't you?

So when is it?

Monday 19th June &
Tuesday 20th June

(book your return flight ideally after 7pm to avoid having to rush)

Everyone arranges their own travel arrangements to suit their location and schedule.

So who is Corinne Wilhelm anyway?

Hi, I'm a very upbeat, friendly English trainer from the South West of England. I am a BWLer, so I have a Bachelors in Business Studies and used to work in London as a marketing manager in financial services. In fact I used to organise corporate events like this for hundreds of professionals.

I mainly work with entrepreneurs and start ups as a communication trainer, coach or consultant.

In online learning since 2003, so I was one of the first online English trainers to qualify in Germany and am always experimenting with teaching methods and technologies. I have also written 2 ebooks and have spoken at learning events as an online language training expert.

I'm on a mission to find the most innovative ways to help people learn and remember more of the right English to take their career or business to the next level.

ONLINE OR OUTDOORS Usually you will find me outdoors walking with my clients, or online giving them language feedback.

As you can see, I love hats so Ascot for me is pure heaven!

I have a live Facebook Live show every Tuesday morning at 08.30 if you want to join me and get a feel for who I am.
